

Roosevelt Takes Issue With Wilson's Preparedness Views

He Flays All Disloyal Hyphenated Americans; Large Crowds Greet Bull Moose Leader

St. Louis, Mo., May 31.—A tremendous, cheering crowd greeted Colonel Roosevelt at the Union Station, here today, on his arrival from Kansas City. The crowd gathered about Roosevelt and he went through it with a rush. Police lines outside the train shed gates held back the crowd through the two-block midway to the street and Roosevelt hurried forward, stumbling into a refuse can as the crowds behind pressed against him. Policemen ran to keep up with him. Another crowd was awaiting him at the hotel.

Speaking before a crowded room at the breakfast in the hotel, Colonel Roosevelt took issue with President Wilson's views on preparedness.

"The trouble with us in America," Mr. Roosevelt said, "is our tendency to use lofty words to veil our meaning. I wish to take issue with Mr. Wilson's expressions in his Memorial Day address. The president says he is for 'universal voluntary service.' That is equivalent to a trout law that would make every boy and girl attend school provided they didn't wish to stay away."

"I like the word 'universal' but voluntary is a weak word. It sucks out the life of the other."

"Mr. Wilson said the acid test was about to be applied to the business men of the nation to see if they will follow their employers to volunteer for training. I am against that. It cannot be patriotism that asks one man to have others prepare to do his fighting. Divided patriotism is as impossible as hyphenated citizens. I appeal for you to prepare yourself. Get out of the rut of the copperhead pacifist."

"I wish to correct the statement, I mean the misstatement, that has been made that this preparedness movement has been instigated by ammunition manufacturers."

"That is false. The men most concerned are patriots, and Americans, not money seekers."

"We have had a great deal of rhetoric. But the American people ought to be more careful about words. We should remember it is our duty to use no word unless we mean it. To declare for no principle unless we are willing to translate our love of that principle into action."

"I should be just as unalterably opposed to an English-American alliance as I am against the German-American alliance. What ever defense I may have for my attitude, you can't accuse me of being feeble."

"Just as Washington, Lee and Grant were against every foe we must be. When I was president I was a friend to every foreign nation. But when it became necessary to assert our rights I

"I've got business with Roosevelt and I've got to see him," he is reported as having said.

He was unarmed, and is being held for investigation.

INGENIOUS PLOT TO SLAY ROCKEFELLER

New York, May 31.—Carrying a leather bag filled with stones, Soerbes R. Fowdrbes, a wood carver of Yonkers, N. Y., stopped in front of the home of William K. Vanderbilt in Fifth Avenue today and began to hurl stones through the windows. The police said Fowdrbes declared he believed he was throwing the stones at the home of John D. Rockefeller, whom he held responsible for the sufferings of the poor. The policeman who made the arrest said Fowdrbes admitted that he and a friend had plotted to kill "Mr. Rockefeller" and that his assistant had promised to meet him in front of the supposed Rockefeller home. Afterward, Fowdrbes said that Mr. Rockefeller would come to the door when the stones were thrown through windows, whereupon the other man was to shoot him. The alleged accomplices failed to appear and Fowdrbes said he became impatient and decided to wreck the house.

The total capacity of the airship is 54,000 cubic metres or about double that of the Zeppelins of the earlier type. The boys were charged with having kidnapped the Prazier girl, whose home is in Frazersburg, near Zanesville, and having kept her in an enclosed automobile in the country for several hours.

Now Hitchcock Denies Statement That Hughes Would Accept Nomination

Chicago, May 31.—Frank H. Hitchcock, former postmaster general, who has been in Chicago several days working in behalf of Justice Charles E. Hughes, where friends desire him nominated by the Republican national convention for president, today issued a statement denying that he ever said Mr. Hughes would accept the honor if tendered him.

"Among questions asked me on my arrival here was whether Justice Hughes would accept the Republican nomination for president," said Hitchcock. "My reply was that no man could refuse a presidential nomination tendered by his party in times like these and particularly if the party felt that he was the man above all others who could unite the divided forces and lead them to victory."

Mr. Hitchcock reiterated his previous statement that he has no authority whatever to represent Mr. Hughes.

"I have come to Chicago solely on my own responsibility to work for what I consider to be the best interests of the Republican party and the country."

MULES, DOGS AND DEAD PERSONS MUST BE STRICKEN FROM POLL BOOKS

Charleston, W. Va., May 31.—Because the supreme court of this state is convinced a large number of mules, dogs and dead persons are registered as actual voters and that many fictitious names are on the registry list, the court late yesterday awarded a peremptory writ of mandamus, commanding the county court of Mingo to meet forthwith and strike from the registration list for the lower Red Jacket precinct of that county a large number of many illegal voters. The petition was filed by Harry Chaffin, who declared to the higher court on behalf of Democratic voters that with the dogs, mules and corpses on the registration lists "it will be impossible to hold a fair election."

GERMANS DRIVING WEDGE INTO FRENCH LINES AT CUMIERES

London, May 31.—The German offensive west of the Meuse in the Verdun region is being relentlessly pressed and the French are being forced back. General Neville's forces which yesterday were struggling to regain a foothold in the outskirts of Cumieres village, have now admittedly retired in this sector in the attack which followed an intense bombardment.

In addition, the possibly significant admission is made that a detachment of German troops, under cover of fog, was able to penetrate to the vicinity of Chantilly, which lies more than a mile below Cumieres. This force, however, was annihilated when taken under the fire of the French artillery, the Paris war office declares.

The Germans advance in this sector is fast driving a wedge into the French line just to the west of the Meuse, the movement being apparently intended to outflank the French in the vicinity of their commanding Dead Man Hill and Hill 304 positions.

Berlin, May 31.—(by wireless to Sayville) —The German troops operating in the Verdun region west of the Meuse have been successful in clearing the southern environs of Cumieres village of the French who were holding on there the war office announced today. Nearly 100 prisoners were taken. The capture on May 29, of a naval gun and 18 machine guns during the fighting in Carrettes wood was also announced.

Paris, May 31.—In the course of a violent struggle last night on the Verdun front the Germans compelled the French to evacuate a first line trench near the Carrettes wood south of Cumieres, the war office announced today.

A THOUSAND DELEGATES TO ATTEND DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION TOMORROW

Columbus, O., May 31.—Committeemen have today made all preparations for the Democratic state convention which will open here at one o'clock tomorrow afternoon. The convention which will be made up of about 1,000 delegates, will, in one respect, be unique among all such gatherings heretofore held in the state. Columbus suffragists have extended an invitation to the wives of delegates to attend the convention and it is said many have signified their intention of attending.

For the purpose of organizing the delegates from Ohio to the St. Louis National Democratic Convention will meet at 11 o'clock tomorrow. The state central committee will have a meeting at 8:30 to arrange for the distribution of badges and attend to other preliminaries. Secretary of War Newton D. Baker, of Cleveland, will sound the keynote of the convention as temporary chairman. John A. Dodd, of Circleville, will be temporary secretary. It is believed Senator Albee Pomeroy will be named permanent chairman.

Ratification of the national administration, a declaration of continued faith in the principles advanced two years ago in the Democratic campaign and a condemnation of the present Republican administration of state affairs will be the leading points of the platform which is to be adopted.

It is regarded unlikely that either the prohibition or woman suffrage questions will enter the deliberations of the body.

Traffic Officer Joe Stokley is ill at his home on Third street, near Union, and missed participating in the Decoration Day parade and exercises.

Washington, D. C., May 31.—It has been definitely decided Senator Kern will make the speech renominating Vice President Marshall at the St. Louis convention.

Well I guess my Decoration Day weather wasn't so bad after all even if we did have a big scare over threatened rain. But that's just my usual luck—with everything against me I generally manage to pull through somehow. If my luck ever changes I'm going to turn this job over to President Fairweather of the Hammer Club. Here's for tomorrow!

Ohio—Fair and slightly warmer tonight. Thursday increasing cloudiness and warmer. Probably local showers in west portion.

Kentucky—Fair and warmer tonight and Thursday. Partly cloudy and warmer.

West Virginia—Fair tonight. Warmer in west portion. Thursday partly cloudy and warmer.

INDICTED ONES ARRAIGNED, GUILTY PLEADERS SENTENCED, JORDAN SAYS "NOT GUILTY"

Fourteen prisoners were arraigned Wednesday morning before Judge Thomas in common pleas court on various indictments, which were returned against them at the recent session of grand jury.

Roy Jordan, charged with murder in the first degree and David Bailey, charged with manslaughter, pleaded not guilty. Three were sentenced to the Mansfield reformatory for indefinite periods on charges of carrying concealed weapons and one was sentenced to the Ohio penitentiary.

The cases of those who entered pleadings of not guilty with the exception of Roy Jordan will be heard next week. It requires a certain period of time to lapse in a first degree murder case.

"Me and dat ha'yr Jackson boy got into some trouble and I had the pistol and we went up and set down under some trees and the sheriff come and arrested us," was the explanation made by William Green, 28, when arraigned on a charge of carrying concealed weapons. He pleaded guilty and briefly related his story. The court gave him an indeterminate sentence to the Mansfield reformatory. Green was arrested at Haverhill, Sunday morning, May 14.

"Nobody but an officer, or a burglar or a coward will carry a revolver," said Judge Thomas, after John Jackson, 25, pleaded guilty to a charge of carrying concealed weapons. Jackson was mixed up in the altercation at Haverhill, May 14. He was given an indeterminate sentence to the Mansfield reformatory.

William Horn, negro, pleaded guilty to a charge of carrying concealed weapons. He claimed he had two razors in his pocket when arrested.

Horn had a dressed chicken concealed in his overalls when taken into custody, which he declared he found on the railroad tracks. "That old chicken had its head cut off and was still warm when I picked it up, judge," declared Horn.

Judge Theo. K. Funk was appointed to defend Horn. Later Judge Funk changed his client's pleading to not guilty and the case was continued.

"Not guilty in 1916 but I am guilty in 1915," said Noah Cooper, 21, Twin Creek, charged with carrying concealed weapons on April 23, 1915.

"Some fellows threatened to take the drop on me after night and I carried it," said Cooper in explaining his act. The state charged Cooper blocked a road against Roscoe McGraw and a fight followed in which the prisoner fired at McGraw four times with a pistol. He admitted the contents of the state and asked for the mercy of the court. The court gave him an indeterminate sentence to the Mansfield reformatory.

Lewis R. Nelson, 36, alias "Bird" charged with abandoning his children, pleaded guilty in a nonchalant way. "I would like to speak to the court privately," said Nelson when asked if he desired to say anything on his behalf before sentence was passed. The court refused and Nelson said he had nothing further. He was sentenced to hard labor at the Ohio penitentiary for an indeterminate term.

"Even the lowest beasts of the forest will provide for its young," said Judge Thomas to Nelson. "I hope you come out of the penitentiary endowed with a spirit to provide for your children."

Arthur Edmore pleaded not guilty to three indictments, two charging carrying concealed weapons and the last house breaking and said he had counsel.

John Robinson, charged with stealing $7 from Brady Williams, pleaded not guilty and said Nate B. Gilliland represented him.

"Not guilty, Your Honor," was the pleading entered by Roy Kinner, negro, charged with cutting John Winkler, a city employee, with a knife. Kinner told the court that he had retained Attorney H. Stanley McCall to defend him.

"I am guilty of part of that charge and part of it I don't," excitedly declared William Johnson, 21, negro, when arraigned on a charge of carrying concealed weapons. "I can explain it."

Johnson was arrested at Cantonburg, Ky., for carrying that pistol and was sentenced to 90 days. I served 30 days and had just got out and the judge gave me my gun. I didn't have a chance to get rid of it before I was arrested here in Portsmouth." The court held that Johnson was technically guilty but said he believed the prisoner was endeavoring to stay within the law. The case was passed.

Robert Snyder, alias Carley Robinson, pleaded not guilty to a charge of stealing 543 pounds of hemp cable from Groves Bros. Attorney Abraham C. Schapiro was appointed by the court to defend Robinson.

Charged with complicity in the stealing of 543 pounds of rope from Groves Bros. John Tinsley pleaded not guilty. Tinsley said he would employ his own counsel.

Indicted on charges of manslaughter for killing Anna Burgess and Grover Cleveland Adams when his automobile turned turtle near Sciotoville recently, David Bailey, Cincinnati, Ky., entered a pleading of not guilty. Attorneys Theo. K. Funk and Phillip Jacobs will defend him.

Harrison Clifford declared he was innocent of the indictments charging him with cutting Ernest Newman but claimed he struck Stanley Newman in self defense. George W. Sheppard was appointed to defend him.

With his hands clasped behind him and his massive head slightly bowed Roy Jordan listened to the indictment charging him with murdering his wife, Mrs. Pamela Jordan, which was read by County Clerk John W. Hall. "Not guilty" was the plea entered by Jordan. Theo. K. Funk will look after the defense.

LOAN ADVANTAGES

4. The weekly or monthly plan is better for the wage earner than the straight loan because as he pays each week the interest is not only being paid but also the principal. Many have tried the straight loan and changed to our DEFINITE CONTRACT PLAN. Weekly payments are not so hard on the wage earner, as to pay a lump sum and he can more readily meet them. Weekly payments and our semi-annual interest reducing plan makes the best loan for wage earners.

"THE FOURTH ESTATE"
WILLIAM FOX PRODUCTION
Greatest Newspaper Story Ever Written, at the Columbia Tonight

News—not in its concrete form, but in all its many phases—is the keynote of "The Fourth Estate," a William Fox photo play starring Samuel J. Ryan, Ruth Blair and Clifford Bruce. The play reeks of news, and "recks" is used intentionally in defiance of any existing law of diction. No lesser word would do. The production does not savor of news, nor lean with news, nor hinge on news. It reeks with news—news and the multiple agencies employed in its collection, publication and distribution.

Few newspaper photoplays have met success because of their glaring infidelity to actual conditions. "The Fourth Estate," however, has been purged of inconsistencies. Its scenes were made in the offices and the mechanical departments of the Chicago Herald, and the atmosphere of newspaperdom—that mysterious, little known realm in which thousands labor that millions may know the daily entries in the world's diary—has been faithfully recorded.

No other profession or industry—call it which you will—has so many diversified types as newspaper making. No other vocation so completely humanizes its workers, those super-energized men and women whose sole purpose in life is to emancipate from chaos the news of the day. All of these types are portrayed in "The Fourth Estate."

It brings one face to face with conscientious copy readers, adjectives-oozing sub editors, murderously hounded city editors, haughty copy boys, stoop-shouldered make-up men, facile-penned rewrite men, and alert reporters, besides the many other types found in the news and the mechanical ends of the huge, present-day paper.

central figure in a tragedy in which the one man who befriended her is accused of murder.

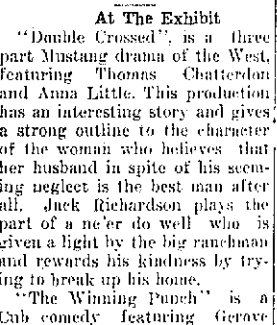

Alice Brady, starring in "Then I'll Come Back to You," at the Lyric Tonight.

"Then I'll Come Back to You" is the picturization of Larry Evan's great story of outdoor life that ran in the Metropolitan magazine recently, a story that abounds with interesting action from start to finish, a big romance packed with thrills and heart interest. The picture is in five acts. One of the new World film Brady-made picture and splendid production.

The Paramount on Friday is a cyclone of action called "The Race" featuring Victor Moore and Anita King (the Paramount girl). Miss King the Lasky star, was the first person, man or woman, to cross the North American continent alone. "The Race" is a three thousand mile dash for riches, honor and love, was founded on Miss King's Transcontinental tour. The funniest man in pictures supported by the bravest and one of the prettiest women in the country. "The Race" is something extraordinary and produced in the usual Lasky elaborate manner.

"Double Crossed" is a three part Mustang drama of the West, featuring Thomas Chatterton and Anna Little. This production has an interesting story and gives a strong outline to the character of the woman who believes that her husband in spite of his seeming neglect is the best man after all. Jack Richardson plays the part of a ne'er do well who is given a light by the big ranchman and rewards his kindness by trying to break up his home.

"The Winning Punch" is a Cab comedy featuring George Ovey as Jerry and George George as the "Terrible Swede" who pulls off a prize fight that is said to be the funniest scene ever thrown on a screen.

Stone, last of the conspirators, and shows Mayor Harding in an exciting round up of the gas house gang. It also brings about the engagement of the mayor and Dorothy. No reference is made to her former love affair, which was disrupted by the changes in the cast. The story as a whole has been somewhat jumbled for this same reason, but the individual episodes have been very entertaining.

"A Leap Year Tangle" is a Nestor college comedy featuring Eddie Lyons, Lee Moran and Betty Compson and others. A riot of fun. "A Daredevil of War" is a two part Imp drama followed by "The Dance of Love" a Powers production.

At The Forrest
"The Tragic Circle" is a two-part American drama featuring Harold Lockwood, May Allison, William Stowell and Ashton Dearholt. A love story out of the ordinary and one that will grasp the interest and hold it to the end. A play for young and old. Be sure to see it. "A Clever Collier's Comedian" is a one part Palstan comedy in which a collier is featured. The young married couple move to the country where the discontented dog performs so many stunts at night that they fear ghosts and move back. "Walk This Way" is a Beauty comedy number, featuring Neva Gerber and Walter Spencer. There are some good contrasts between city and country types in this and the plot is light and entertaining.

At The Strand
"Life's Harmony" is an American three reel drama featuring Vivian Rich. The story is interesting from the start. It is a bit sentimental and tells the story of an old organist being ousted from his position for a younger man. Vivian Rich is very charming as the daughter of the old organist. "The Candy Cook" is a Vogue production, a farce comedy, extremely amusing. A girl loses her skirt and runs into a candy kitchen where she faints in the arms of two men. A side splitter.

At The Temple
Tonight's big feature is chapter two of "Why Pays", entitled "When Justice Sleeps". This chapter of three parts, like the chapters to follow, is filled with thrill after thrill. Be sure to see every chapter and start tonight if you have not seen the first of this great series of pictures. "Fresh From The Farm" is a Pathe Phumfilm. Rube Silvers leads a strenuous existence on the farm and "dad" sends him away to college. It is nothing but fun. "When Miss Make Merry", is a Pathe animated cartoon picture.

CHILDREN WE WORRY ABOUT

Close confinement in school during the past winter, overstudy, perhaps, an attack of the grip or tonsillitis, some one of these things is doubtless responsible for the condition of the child who shows a decline in health now.

What are the symptoms? Pallor and languor, a faded appetite, dark rings under the eyes, bronchial colds. Very often the best efforts of the family physician fail in such cases and the condition of the child causes the most intense anxiety. Cod-liver oil, so often prescribed, generally fails because the weak stomach is unable to digest fats. Try this treatment. Before breakfast each morning give the child the juice of half an orange. After then feed him one of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Keep this up for a few days and then give one of the pills after the evening meal also. With the child before leaving the treatment and again after two weeks. An increase in weight of from two to five pounds will show you that you are on the right track at last. Care is necessary in the diet of the patient and it will be well focused to the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., 235 Broadway, N. Y., for a diet book and pamphlet, "Building Up the Blood." Both are free. Your own druggist sells Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

Why Not Face the Facts About Armor Competition?

To the People:

The policy of the United States Government for many years has made real competition in armor-making ineffective.

The Government might have asked the three armor plants for bids and let the entire tonnage to the lowest bidder. That would have made competition effective.

The result of such a course would have been to drive two of the three manufacturers out of business, and leave the country with facilities of only one plant in time of need.

The Government in fact has always asked for bids from the three manufacturers, but no matter what the price quoted, each year's business was divided among them.

Armor makers serve but one customer—the Government, just as a public utility serves but one customer—a community.

The solution of the public utility problem is regulation of rates.

The solution of the armor problem is for the Government to fix the price.

We voluntarily agree to accept any price fixed by the Federal Trade Commission. Isn't acceptance of that offer better than the destruction of an industry built solely to serve the Government?

R. VON WALDEN IS SENTENCED

R. Von Walden, Cincinnati, is to take care of those that come before us and do our duty." Judge Thomas scored the alleged physician heavily for entering the homes of local citizens and taking large fees before accepting the cases. "You went up to the little home which only had thirty dollars in it and took it. Later you received the other $200 before going further in the case. You always made sure that you got what you wanted whether the man got well or not."

Von Walden was reminded that the State Medical Board, which was represented at the hearing by George H. Watson, secretary, Columbus, would keep a careful watch over his future transactions and if either "directly or indirectly" he attempts to violate the law the jail sentence would be enforced.

Von Walden was immediately arraigned on the indictment charging him with illegal practice of medicine at the home of Mrs. J. S. Moon. He waived the reading of the document and pleaded not guilty through his counsel.

When asked if he had any reasons why the court should not pass sentence, Von Walden said: "I had not the slightest idea or intention of violating the law. I consulted a prominent attorney in Cincinnati and he advised me that if I put a physician in my office, I would be all right. I want to say that I am to withdraw entirely from the profession."

"For one court to attempt to eliminate," said Judge Thomas, "in the practice of medicine all of the fraudulent methods, would be like dipping the Ohio river dry played no favorites.

"Labor councils generally have announced that they will not take part in the preparedness parade June 3. I have seen shameful editorials upholding that attitude. When I say Universal service that is what I refer to. I do not expect to seek the life out of my words nor do I want any one to consider that I shall join the pacifists in any wild mental joy rides.

"Uncle Sam has just one friend—Uncle Sam."

Flays Certain German-Americans

Moral treason to the United States was charged by Mr. Roosevelt in his principal address delivered before the City Club against German-Americans who seek to make their government mental representatives act in the interests of Germany rather than of this country. He characterized the German-American Alliance as "an anti-American alliance," but added that he believed that its members "not only do not represent but scandalously misrepresent" the great majority of real Americans of German origin.

Urging the motto "America for Americans" for all Americans whether they were born here or abroad, the former president declared that "the salvation of our people lies in having a nationalized and unified America, ready for the tremendous tasks of both war and peace."

"I appeal to all our citizens," the colonel said, "no matter from what land their forefathers came, to keep this ever in mind, and to shun with scorn and contempt the sinister intrigues and mischief-makers who would seek to divide them along lines of creed, of birthplace or of national origin."

Colonel Roosevelt said he came to St. Louis to speak on Americanism—to speak of and condemn the use of the hyphen "whenever it represents an effort to form political parties along racial lines or to bring pressure to bear on parties and politicians, not for American purposes, but in the interest of some group of voters of a certain national origin, or of the country from which they or their fathers came."

Opposed To American Of the Wrong Kind

He was equally bitter against the native American of the wrong kind and for the immigrant of the right kind, the former president declared, but the immigrant who did not become in good faith an American "is out of place" in the United States. He said each nation should be judged by its conduct and that the United States should oppose encroachment on its own rights whether Germany, England, France or Russia be guilty of misconduct.

"The effort to keep our citizenship divided against itself," the colonel continued, "by the use of the hyphen and along the lines of national origin, is certain to breed a spirit of bitterness and prejudice and dislike between great bodies of our citizens. If some citizens band together as German-Americans or Irish-Americans, then after a while others are certain to band together as English-Americans or Scandinavian-Americans, and every such banding together, every attempt to make for political purposes a German-American alliance or a Scandinavian-American alliance, means down at the bottom an effort against the interest of straight-out American citizenship, an effort to bring in to our nation the bitter old world rivalries and jealousies and hatreds.

"What I have been striving for a year and three-quarters to do is to protest against the upgrowth of this utterly un-American spirit, which means, if successful, division and impotence in our national life, the breaking up of our unity as a nation, the severance of our citizenship along the bitter lines of old-world antipathy."

Pointing back along his own career in public and private life, Colonel Roosevelt cited numerous examples of men who, associated with him as officeholders or soldiers, were descendants of foreigners but who he declared were in every sense real Americans. "It would be possible," he declared, "to man our entire administration from president down with men of German blood, and of such uncompromising Americanism that every good American could follow them with wholehearted loyalty."

"I hold it an outrage and a violation of every principle of true Americanism," he continued, "to discriminate against such a man (the American of foreign parentage) because of the land from which he or his parents came, or because of his creed. But I hold it no less an outrage for him to act in our domestic politics not as an American, but as an American with a qualification: as an American who has some un-American interest to serve, some foreign country to serve, because of his ancestry. The man who thus acts is the hyphenated American."

Claim Attempt Made To Coerce Politicians

This is not a mere abstract question which I am discussing. At this very moment it is blazoned forth in the public press that branches of the 'German American Alliance,' so-called, in different parts of the country, are attempting to coerce timid and unscrupulous politicians by threatening to vote against them, or by actually voting against them, when the German-American Alliance regards their action as unsatisfactory from the standpoint, not of the United States, but of Germany. These branches of the Alliance openly take the ground that they intend to shape American politics in the interest, not of the United States, but of Germany. The German-American Alliance of Pennsylvania, for instance, as reported in the public press, states that it intends to show 'the leaders of the national conventions that they have to deal with a united German-American vote.'

"Such a statement represents moral treason to the Republic. Branches of the German-American Alliance in other parts of the country have used practically the same language. The Alliance has put forth no program affecting America. The program on which it wishes American citizens to vote is one affecting Germany and only Germany. I do not in the least object to it because it denounces me. It has denounced Mr. Wilson almost as often and almost as severely. One of its favorite forms of denunciation includes Mr. Wilson, Mr. Root and myself, as equally to be opposed in the interest of Germany."

Moral Treason To United States

"It is moral treason to the United States for any of its citizens to act and to seek to make their governmental representatives act, not with reference to the interests of the United States, but of some foreign power. The German-American Alliance is, in practice, an anti-American Alliance. Any such political organization, whether German-American, Irish-American or English-American, is not a healthy element of the body politic."

"Any body of our citizens have a perfect right to oppose any man because of a difference of judgment concerning American problems; but it has no right to deal with American public servants, or American public men on the basis of the interests of some foreign power. The men who so act are disloyal to the United States, and I say this just as quickly of me trying to serve England or France as I say it of men trying to serve Germany. I condemn the American citizen who acts as an 'English-American' just as strongly as I condemn the American citizen who acts as a 'German-American.' If France had subjugated Belgium I would condemn her just as strongly as I have condemned Germany. If British warcraft had sunk German passenger vessels and taken the lives of hundreds of American men, women and children, as German submarines did in the case of the Lusitania, the Arabic, and other vessels, I would have condemned any English-American who excused the act as unhesitatingly as I have condemned and now condemn the 'German-Americans' who now defend or apologize for the action of the German submarines. I would condemn as strongly the actions of any of our people who sought to make this country subservient to England, as I now condemn those who seek to make it subservient to Germany. Such men are not merely un-American; they are anti-American; to them, and unfit to be citizens of this republic."

"I believe that the men thus acting not only do not represent but scandalously misrepresent the great majority of real Americans of German origin. I believe that the great mass of Americans of German origin are now, as they have always been, among the most patriotic and loyal citizens in this country."

West End Business Men Plan A Big Organization

Petitions are being circulated by Mark A. Crawford, Frank White, Charles Barlow, A. M. Laramie and L. C. Peel for the purpose of forming a West End Business Men's Association of Portsmouth. Already more than one hundred signatures have been added to the petition.

Those signing will meet sometime in June at the Washington hotel where a banquet will be held. Here the framework of the organization will be built and arrangements for a permanent association made. The formation of such an organization is something which the business men and property owners in the West End have been agitating for several months.

According to the petition the object of the organization is as follows: "We, the undersigned business men of the West End of Portsmouth, Ohio, hereby agree to give what time, effort, influence and means we reasonably can, to the organization and maintenance of a West End Business Men's Association of Portsmouth to be organized and maintained for the purpose of improving property and business conditions throughout the West End of the city; encouraging civic betterment; enlarging the scope of business activities; assisting in the development and improvement of the West End property by encouraging a greater and better activity among the people owning property and living in that part of the county west of the Scioto river."

Among those who have signed the petitions are: P. F. Stanton, Roy McElhenny, John A. Wilhelm, John W. Dier, W. L. Crawford, Chalmers Davis, David E. Thomas, George C. McClure, Chas. D. Scudder, Dr. P. W. Young, A. J. Finney, W. L. B. Jack, Phil M. Streich, Dr. H. A. Schirrmann, Adam Giesler, Henry Prescott, John Dier, C. N. Hansen, P. D. The Old Taylors of Frankfort, Ky., opposed the Portsmouth Champs at Millbrook park Wednesday afternoon. WILSON'S EFFORTS FAILED TO SAVE BIRTH OF CHILD IN JAIL

Cincinnati, O., May 31.—President Wilson's effort to prevent the birth of a baby in the Troy, Ohio, jail, failed today because the stork arrived before the pardon of the mother. The child lived but a few minutes according to word reaching here from Troy. The nation's chief executive signed the commutation of the sentence today while the baby was born last night. Mrs. Cornelia Ferguson, of Cincinnati, convicted recently on the charge of forging a money order and sentenced to serve three months in the Troy jail by Judge Hollister, of the United States court, was the mother.

Rev. W. P. Chapman Closes His Pastorate With Local Church

Sunday, May 28th, Rev. W. P. Chapman closed a successful pastorate at Pleasant Green Baptist church with a very fitting service. He used the following text for his farewell sermon, "For If I Build Again That Which I Have Destroyed I Make Myself A Transgressor." Gal. 2:18. The sermon was forceful, instructive and inspiring.

George Anderson, financial clerk, reported that the pastor had raised $2537 and had paid for all repairs made. Several expressions of appreciation. A vote of thanks was extended to the pastor and his wife and a committee appointed to draft resolutions. "Bless be the tie that binds" was sung with much feeling. Then came the parting words which closed a very impressive service. On Monday evening a farewell reception was given Rev. Chapman under the management of the missionary society. It was a very pleasant gathering of members and friends who came to have a parting word with their pastor and wife whom they had learned to love. Several brought useful presents. The following resolutions were read and adopted:

STRAP INSTEAD OF JAIL FOR BOYS WHO ROBBED OFFICE

WILLIAM J. MORGAN, CHIEF.

New York, May 31.—The good old-fashioned strap properly applied probably will be the only punishment meted out to William J. Morgan and William J. Bain, the six-year-old office boys in the banking offices of J. P. Morgan and Company, who ran away with $30,516.32 belonging to the firm. The boys were captured in Philadelphia. Ted Daly, another lad, who accompanied them to Philadelphia, escaped.

McManus, who was known in the Morgan office as the "Angel-faced boy with the sweet voice," was handed the money in bills and change, together with a bunch of envelopes in which the money was to be placed for the regular weekly pay-roll. He slipped out of the office, pausing only long enough to ask his friend, Billy Bain, to go along. The accomplice of McManus was not noticed until the men in the office asked for their money.

Most of the money was found on the lads when they were captured by private detectives, who picked up the trail and followed the youths to Philadelphia.

It is said at the Morgan offices that the boys will not be prosecuted.

Transmutation of Metals

"The alchemists vainly sought to change mercury into gold. We now know," writes John Canale Dean in Popular Astronomy, "that mercury might be turned into gold if we could expel from its atoms one alpha particle and a beta particle, or if the metal nucleus could be made to expel an alpha particle it would become like atoms of gold. This has not yet been done, but it is possible that it might be done by the application of an electric current of some million volts."

OBITUARY

Adolph Brunner, Sr.

Death at 7:15 Tuesday evening removed from the city one of Portsmouth's best known merchants and honored citizens, when Adolph Brunner, Sr., passed away, his death taking place at the family residence, Seventh and Court streets. Infirmitudes of age caused death. Mr. Brunner having led a retired life the last five years. Surrounded by his large family of grown children, Mr. Brunner, who for so many years was recognized as a power in a mercantile way in the West End, passed peacefully to his final reward. He was prepared for the end, as he had served his Master well, and had been a dutiful husband and a loving father.

Perhaps Portsmouth had no better known citizen than Adolph Brunner, Sr., and the news of this good citizen's passing away will be learned with genuine regret in all parts of the city. Mr. Brunner had been singularly successful in the drygoods business, and methods he had so religiously pursued in his field of endeavor made his name a household word in the city. The name of Brunner in a drygoods was stood for quality in all the years that the deceased was identified with the mercantile interests of Portsmouth.

The surviving children are as follows: Charles E., Albert E., Adolph, Jr., Henry and Oscar, and Mrs. Fred L. Boerr and Mrs. Lena Scholz, all of this city; and Mrs. Henry Mentzel, of St. Joseph, Mo. Three children in the Brunner family, who have passed away, were: Fred, William and Rudolph. Mrs. Adolph Brunner passed away March 15, 1905.

Mr. Brunner was born October 7, 1838, in Schwarzenberg, Bohemia, in Switzerland. His father's name was Samuel Brunner, and his mother's maiden name was Mary Hunkeler. His father had a cotton factory in Switzerland. Mr. Brunner attended school in Switzerland and was a very apt pupil, being just as thorough in his studies in the class room as marked his business career in the city of his adoption. In 1855 he came to this country with his brother Gottlieb. His brother Rudolph had come three or four years before him. Soon after coming to Portsmouth he went into the dry goods store of his brother, Rudolph, on the corner of Second and Market streets. This store still bears his name, being operated by two of his sons, Henry and Adolph. On March 15, 1916, A. Brunner & Sons opened their new store, 903-911 Gallia street, the building being erected especially for that purpose. It will ever stand as a monument to the frugality, enterprise and square business methods of Mr. Brunner and his progressive sons.

When he entered the store of his brother Rudolph he took the position of a clerk. It was not long until he showed a wonderful insight into the mercantile business. When his brother died February 17, 1877, Mr. Brunner was appointed executor and took complete charge of the business, which flourished under his management.

Mr. Brunner was ever regarded as one of Portsmouth's most beloved German citizens. His even disposition, his cheerful ways, his affable manners endeared him to his acquaintances, and many people in Portsmouth and on the West Side will learn with regret that Mr. Brunner is no more. He was ever ready to assist any worthy person or any deserving enterprise, having great faith in Portsmouth and her people.

Mr. Brunner was a life-long Democrat, and ever ready to defend his belief along political lines. He was a faithful member of the German Evangelical church and his purse was ever open to the needs of this institution. In every way he was a well-rounded citizen, and his life was such that the community in which he lived is better because he lived in it.

The funeral services will be conducted Thursday afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock, from the family residence, Seventh and Court streets, and the last rites will be in charge of Rev. Samuel Lindemeyer, pastor of the German Evangelical church. Interment will be in Greenlawn.

Funeral services will be conducted there at 7 o'clock this evening by Rev. Charles Oakley. The body will be taken to Columbus Thursday morning for burial in that city. John E. Williams Relative to the recent death of John E. Williams, a veteran merchant of Williamson, W. Va., who was well-known here, the Mingo Republican of Williamson said:

"Died at his home in this city Wednesday morning, at 10:30 o'clock, John E. Williams, aged 85 years.

"The sad news of Mr. Williams' sudden death cast a shadow over the entire community when the news was flashed over the city shortly before noon Wednesday. Mr. Williams had been in poor health for nearly four years, suffering with heart disease, but he was able at most times to get around and gave quite a bit of his time to his grocery business and his condition was not thought to be nearly so critical as it proved to be.

"Deceased was born at Minersville, Ohio, April 26, 1850, being 66 years of age at the time of his demise. He came to this country in 1897 and was a prominent coal operator for a number of years, but finally gave up the coal business to engage in the grocery business in this city in the year 1900. His store here is one of the largest, as well as one of the best managed concerns in this section.

"He was a man of excellent habits and fine moral character and met most of the conditions of life in a practical matter-of-fact way.

Among his friends he ranked as a man of culture and refinement, a kind neighbor, devoted husband and father and a true friend.

"He is survived by a loving wife, formerly Miss Flora A. Glidden, of Portsmouth, Ohio, and one son, John E. Williams, Jr., and two daughters, Mrs. Mary Brown, of Huntington, and Mrs. Wolf, of New Albany, Ind.

"Deceased was a member of the Masonic lodge and a Knight Templar.

"Brief funeral services were held Friday afternoon, at 3 p. m., at the home under the auspices of the Masonic lodge, Rev. Buntis officiating, after which the remains were taken to Pomory, Ohio, near his old home for interment."

Blackburn, of No. 1118 Gallia street, attended the funeral of the former's father, Levi Blackburn, which took place Tuesday afternoon from the United Presbyterian church at South Run, near Rome, Adams county. He had never regained his health since suffering a stroke of paralysis September 27, 1913. His wife fell off a foot-log and was drowned in South Run 20 years ago. Mr. Blackburn was a member of the United Presbyterian church and also of the Rome lodge Knights of Pythias. He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. John Neal, at home, and Mrs. Clarence Pitt, of Pittsburg, and four sons, J. E. Blackburn, of Portsmouth; William Blackburn, of Peabees, Joseph and Levi, Jr., of Rome. Mrs. Robert Kress, of Buena Vista, was his grand-daughter.

John Williamson
Judge A. Z. Blair received word of the sudden death of a warm personal friend, John Williamson, former sheriff of Highland county, at his home in Seaman, O., Tuesday night. Mr. Williamson was one of the most prominent men of that section. He was a brother-in-law of Walter Hopkins, of Sardinia, well known N. & W. passenger conductor.

Moses Dailey
Mrs. Paul D. Dailey, of 1728 Sixth street, received word that her father-in-law, Moses Dailey, aged 78 years, a well known Pike county farmer, dropped dead at his home in Sargent's, Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Children surviving by the first marriage are: Irving, of Waverly, Nello, at home and Paul, who recently located in Cleveland. Those by the second marriage are: Tom of Newtown, Charles, of Columbus, John of Grand Rapids, Will and Percy and Jane and Gladys, at home.

BRITISH CASUALTIES REPORTED HEAVY

WILSON IS DEVOTING MUCH TIME TO THE POLITICAL FIELD

Washington, D. C., May 31.—Plans for the Democratic convention at St. Louis and the ensuing campaign were discussed by President Wilson today with Representative Doremus, of Michigan, chairman of the Democratic congressional committee, Norman Hapgood, an organizer of the Wilson Non-partisan League, and Senator Taggard, of Indiana.

Between now and convention time the president is expected to devote much attention to politics. Selection of a permanent convention chairman was discussed. Senator James, of Kentucky, and Senator Kern, of Indiana, are among those suggested for the place in case Champ Clark declines.

Friends of Vice President Marshall believe that there is no doubt that he will be renominated. They are not urging the president to take a stand on the question because there are other candidates.

The plan of the convention managers is to have Alabama give way to New Jersey when the roll is called for the nomination of presidential candidates so that John W. Wescott, who has been selected by President Wilson to nominate him may immediately make his speech. A motion to close nominations will be in order.

CONFERENCES MAY SETTLE THE DEMANDS OF RAILROAD MEN FOR WORK CONDITIONS

New York, May 31.—Representatives of the 325 railroad systems of the United States and of the conductors, trainmen and engineers will begin here tomorrow a series of conferences to settle, if possible, questions of working hours and wages. Eighteen general managers compose the committee acting for the railroads, and they will meet four representatives from each of the employees' organizations—the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and Firemen, the Brotherhood of Trainmen and the Order of Railroad Conductors.

More than a thousand delegates have been sent here by the employees and between conferences with the railroad managers the representatives of the four brotherhoods will consult their fellow delegates. It is estimated that the conferences will cost the brotherhoods $50,000 a week.

It was said today that majority of the employees' representatives favor a strike only as a last resort. The workers, however, wish to settle the matter themselves, and are opposed to turning the questions over to the Interstate Commerce Commission, a procedure which has been suggested by some of the railroad officials on the ground that since the railroads would have to earn more money to pay the wage increases demanded, the question of rates is involved. The demands of the workers are for the eight hour day for all; time and a half pay for overtime, preparatory time and overtime by minutes. The engineers for the most part are now on eight hour time, and the eight hour demand concerns the trainmen more than anything else.

Time and a half for overtime is insisted upon for all workers. The railroad managers estimate that to grant the demands of the men would cost them from $100,000,000 to $150,000,000 a year.

gates have been sent here by the employees and between conferences with the railroad managers the representatives of the four brotherhoods will consult their fellow delegates. It is estimated that the conferences will cost the brotherhoods $50,000 a week.

A. P. SANDLES ENTERS THE DEMOCRATIC GUBERNATORIAL RACE

Columbus, O., May 30.—Alfred P. Sandles, former president of the State Agricultural Commission, now is an avowed and committed candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor.

The long-expected declaration of candidacy was made yesterday, and the formal certificate will be filed with the secretary of state at once.

Mr. Sandles' announcement of his candidacy to the Democrats of Ohio follows:

"James M. Cox has made, and would again make, a better governor than Frank B. Willis. A review of election figures and facts is not a personal attack upon any citizen.

"In 1914, the Democrats of Ohio made an heroic effort to elect Mr. Cox. They failed. Rural district Democrats were dissatisfied. The cities, with Mr. Baker and Mr. Finley as their spokesmen, should not seek to dictate candidates in 1916.

"When Mr. Cox went out of office, Republicans went in. When Mr. Baker went out of office as mayor of Cleveland, Republicans went in. Mr. Cox, when a candidate for re-election two years ago, faced a divided enemy.

"Mr. Cox lost Ohio by 90,000 votes, measured by the Willis-Garfield strength. He carried 14 counties and lost 74. Only 9 Democratic congressmen landed.

"Ohio has been carried by Democrats by 100,000. Governor Harrison, for re-election, carried 700 Democrats into county offices.

"Democrats do not approve of a slate ticket. They prefer to have the candidates named at the Angust primary.

"A nomination forced by ex-appointees and beneficiaries will not arouse enthusiasm.

"Two years ago Mr. Cox was entitled to the nomination without opposition. The field is now an open one.

"Mr. Durbin and Mr. Finley should not use their official position as chairmen to shut any Democrat out of the primary.

"They should not attempt to manipulate the state convention in the interest of any man or set of men.

"If Mr. Cox is strong with the rank and file my candidacy will not harm him.

"If he should be nominated, I would do everything honorable within my power to secure his election. I feel sure he will say the same thing for me.

"The primary contest is on."

RESTA EASILY WON AUTO CLASSIC AT INDIANAPOLIS; AVERAGE 82.26 MILES

Indianapolis, May 31.—Dario Resta easily won the sixth annual sweepstakes on the Indianapolis Motor Speedway yesterday, completing the 300 miles in three hours, thirty-six minutes and 16.82 seconds. He finished two minutes ahead of Wilbur D'Aleone, who was second, in 3:38:41 and three minutes ahead of Ralph Mulford, who was third in 3:39:45.95. Resta's average speed was 82.26 miles an hour. Ralph De Palma completed 300 miles of last year's grind at an average speed of 90.21 miles an hour.

Four men were injured, one seriously, when two of the racing cars overturned. Jacy Lecain, driving as relief for Jules De Vigne, is in a serious condition as a result of overturning on the north turn. Lecain was caught under the machine.

Lecain's skull is fractured in two places and the abdominal wall torn open and he probably will die. He was a team mate of Carl Limberg who was killed in the New York races recently. The mechanic was slightly hurt. Tom Rooney's car blew a tire and smashed into the wall at the top of the south turn. The mechanic, Jim McAlister, was thrown over the wall and was bruised and cut. Rooney was caught in the wreckage which slid down the track. He suffered a broken leg and dislocated shoulder.

After the one hundred and seventy-third mile, Resta had little competition for first place and the pace showed up. Eddie Rickenbacker and John Aitken fought Resta for the lead as long as they were in the race, but engine trouble put both out. Rickenbacker to the tenth lap and Aitken in the 20th. Rickenbacker later took the wheel of Paul Henderson's car and drove it over the lap in sixth place. The first ten drivers, who share the prize money, finished in the following order:

Resta, D'Aleone, Mulford, Joseph C. Eastman, Barney Oldfield, Ed. McGarr, G. H. Anderson, J. C. Foy, Howard Wilson, J. C. Foy, H. H. Harte, Arthur Johnson and Tom Haley.

D'Aleone's reward was $6,000 and Mulford's $3,000. The prizes then range down to $500 for tenth place.

AFTER SIX YEARS OF SUFFERING

Woman Made Well by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Columbus, Ohio.—"I had almost given up. I had been sick for six years with female troubles and nervousness. I had a pain in my right side and could not eat anything without hurting my stomach. I could not drink cold water at all nor eat any kind of raw fruit, nor fresh meat nor chicken. From 175 pounds I went to 115 and would get so weak at times that I fell over. I began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and ten days later I could eat and it did not hurt my stomach. I have taken the medicine ever since and I feel like a new woman. I now weigh 127 pounds so you can see what it has done for me already. My husband says he knows your medicine has saved my life."

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound contains just the virtues of roots and herbs needed to restore health and strength to the weak and ailing of the body. That is why Mrs. Barlow, a chronic invalid, recovered so completely. It pays for women suffering from any female ailments to insist upon having Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

IRISH CRISIS IS BELIEVED PASSED

London, May 31.—There is a hopeful feeling today in political circles, regarding the outcome of the Irish negotiations. It is possible that Lloyd George will make a statement in the house of commons before adjournment to the effect that considerable progress has been made, although the main difficulty—the exclusion of Ulster—is not entirely removed. According to published reports the provincial Irish members of parliament believe that an agreement is practically certain and that the case of Ulster will be fully provided for.

While there is no confirmation at Westminster that an agreement has actually been reached, it is believed an early settlement is possible. Sir Edward Carson has called a meeting of the Ulster members for today at which he is expected to make a report.

ORDER REVISION OF FREIGHT RATES

Washington, D. C., May 31.—Revision of freight rates on bituminous coal from mines in Illinois, Kentucky and Alabama to points in Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana and Tennessee, were ordered today by the Interstate Commerce Commission to become effective August 1st. Rates from the Alabama fields to Mississippi and Louisiana will be lowered from five to twenty cents a ton, while rates in Illinois and Kentucky times to the same points in most cases would be increased. The result will place mines in Illinois and Kentucky on a basis nearly on a competitive basis with mines in Alabama.

INCREASE IN SUBS IS PASSED BY HOUSE

Washington, D. C., May 31.—Advocates of two dreadnaughts this year were marshalling their forces for another fight in the house Friday when the final vote is taken on the naval appropriation bill. They were not discouraged by action of the house, sitting as a committee of the whole yesterday, in defeating an amendment to add the two dreadnaughts to the building program. The vote was 190 to 114.

The house adopted an amendment to increase from twenty to fifty the number of submarines to be built, but rejected decisively proposals to provide six battle cruisers instead of five and to add two scout cruisers. The vote on the submarine amendment was 114 to 164.

"Some Nuts For No-Hellites To Crack."

REV. HILL CREATING INTEREST IN REVIVAL

Rev. Dave Hill, who styles himself the "Lumberjack Evangelist," is most certainly stirring things in the protracted revival he is holding at Wesley Hall Mission, Second street. Rev. Hill, who is a plain man and a still plainer talker, arrived here Sunday evening from Flint, Mich., where he concluded a successful meeting. He will remain here indefinitely, holding meetings each night at Wesley Hall at 7:30 o'clock. He is drawing large crowds and the interest is at high tide. Tonight his subject will be "Where Are the Dead Today?" Tuesday evening his subject was "A Nut For the No-Hellites To Crack." That he is plain of speech and quite pointed as well is shown by the following epigrams: Why is it you find men everywhere wanting to take Hell out of the Bible, but you never find one that wants to take Heaven out? Well, it is because their life is crooked, and they are too big towards to come out and line up with the Bible and straighten up. You do away with eternal punishment for an impenitent sinner and you have done away with the whole scheme of salvation. Some of these old geezers who go around and say they do not believe in Hell will not be dead fifteen minutes until they will get over it. You destroy a man's faith in God's warning to a sinner and you have destroyed his faith in God's promise to a sinner. You are responsible to God and you will never get one thing that His mercy offers you until your life meets up with what His justice demands of you. If there is no eternal punishment for a sinner then the story that Jesus gave of the final judgment in Matthew 25th is a fake. In the eyes of many of the people of the present day Hell is only a joke and Heaven the dream of an imaginary mind, but you keep on living in sin and you will find that Hell is a red hot joke. This doing away with the penalty of sin has brought out a lot of modern theology that has made Jesus a pattern instead of an atoning saviour; therefore Jesus instead of being a saviour is only a model of righteousness for men to model their lives after. If ever you save your soul and get to Heaven you will do it through faith in the atoning blood of Jesus. Sin is an infinite crime, of breaking an infinite law, given by an infinite God, for your infinite good. And infinite justice could never meet an infinite crime without anything else but infinite punishment. (And infinite simply means that that can be no greater.) And it took an infinite atonement to atone for an infinite crime. Therefore God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten son that whosoever believeth on Him should not perish but have everlasting life. So if there is no infinite punishment there is no need of an infinite atonement. So you see that if you do away with infinite punishment you can easily do away with the infinite atonement and the sacrifice of Jesus has no place in the scheme of salvation.

JUST GOT OVER A COLD?

Look out for kidney troubles and backache. Colds overtax the kidneys and often leave them weak. For weak kidneys—well, read what a Portsmouth woman says:

Mrs. Harry Daulton, 818 Eleventh St., Portsmouth says: "I think a cold brought on kidney trouble in my case. I had a severe pain in the small of my back and found great difficulty in doing my housework. The action of my kidney secretions were unnatural. My feet swelled so badly that I couldn't put on my shoes and I had pus spots under my eyes. I doctored and used several medicines with no relief. Doan's Kidney Pills cured me."

"CLEAN UP" OFFICIALS BEGIN AN INSPECTION

The state deputy fire marshals who were sent here by State Fire Marshal Bert S. Buckley, upon request of Mayor Kaps, began their tour of inspection of the city Monday. In the party were Deputies John S. King, of Ironton, Hugh Burns, of Cincinnati, and C. A. Long, of Greenfield. The marshals came under instructions to make a thorough job of the work, and they will spend whatever time is necessary to completely cover the city. Factories and homes will be inspected with the idea of making suggestions for removing fire traps and debris that might constitute a fire menace. Rubbish in basements, defective wiring, rubber hose connections and the like will be pointed out to the property owners and they will be asked to make such changes as will conform to the fire regulations. Citizens can aid the fire marshals by making inspections themselves and seeing to it that their premises are in first class shape. Rubbish will gradually accumulate about houses and thereby increase the danger of fire. A little extra work will remove the menace and result in the prevention of fires.

Portsmouth recently had an example of rubbish causing fire in the destruction of the village of Otway and every one should be keenly anxious to do his share towards lessening the possibilities of fire. Help the fire marshals along.

Praise For Judge Who Formerly Lived Here

The impression which Superior Court Judge H. D. Gregory made upon the people of Oakland and San Francisco on his trip following the ending of the Madison Slaughter trial is shown by press comment. Judge Gregory was a guest at the Newspaper Men's Club, and met many members of the editorial staffs of the various papers.

The Knave, a department of the Oakland Tribune, has the following to say regarding Judge Gregory: "Judge Gregory of Oroville was in town immediately after he pronounced sentence upon the Rev. Madison Slaughter. The judge is a quiet and modest sort of man, who does not advertise himself in any way, nor give forth signs that he has been through a notable judicial experience."

"His bearing is in keeping with the impression that might have been gained of him from the accounts of the famous case over which he presided. He is a dignified but not capacious magistrate, who was sure of himself and generally cognizant of what is seemingly in legal proceedings."

"He doesn't talk much about the case, further than to intimate that Slaughter did not get any more than was coming to him. The judge had a hard session and his visit to San Francisco is for a change of scene and air, which constitute the important elements of a rest—to forget as far as possible the sordid and salacious particulars of the celebrated case—Oroville Daily Mercury, Butte County, California."

Judge Gregory is judge of the supreme court of California, a son of the late H. B. Gregory, formerly of Third street, Portsmouth. He is the great grand son of John Bell, who had the original grant signed by George Washington for the land of the old town of Alexandria. Judge Gregory has this document in his possession and also the original plat for the town of Alexandria signed by John Bell. The town name was afterwards changed to Portsmouth.

Iron-ton was the scene of a serious cutting scrape, Tuesday, when Will Tinsley and Tom Burton met at Third and Railroad streets and began slashing each other without any formalities. "MAN WHO PRAYED AFTER HE DIED"

The evangelistic meetings at the Findlay Street M. E. church are growing in interest, and with large and appreciative crowds at each service, with many at the altar for prayer. The church is reviving and sinners are being converted to God in the old way. The evangelist took for his text, "The man who prayed after he died." 2nd Kings 5:14. He said the moral lepers should be segregated today as they were in the days of Elisha, for the good of society, but it is not so, for they are given the first places in the societies and homes. The subject tonight will be "The man who prayed after he died."

Dr. Edwards' STRENGTH TONIC

This Tonic which Dr. Edwards recommends is designed to restore strength to the weak, strength to the muscles, strength to the mind and strength to the nerves.

It is given to restore to the blood that rich red color which every weak and run-down person must have before he can get well and strong.

That Natural Ruddy Color

Of good health is absent in cases of thin, weak and run-down patients. Their cheeks, lips and eyelids lack that normal blood tint, and the feeling of well being is not with them. Dr. Edwards' Strength Tonic restores the color to the blood, drives away that sickly greenish pallor of the complexion and supplies fuel for the vital fire in weak and thin people.

Nervous Patients

Dr. Edwards says patients are nervous because they do not have enough rich, red blood to feed the nerves. So he made this Tonic to give the blood just what it needs for that purpose.

Sugar Coated Tablets

Dr. Edwards has his Tonic put in a sugar coated tablet so it will be pleasant to take and will not injure the teeth. Pale, thin, weak and run-down people contract diseases more frequently than well ones. They are liable to have Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Bright's Disease, Nervous Dyspepsia, Insanity, Fevers and Consumption.

Don't Have These

Why not put yourself in shape not to have these diseases by letting Dr. Edwards' Strength Tonic help you out of your nervous and run-down condition? It will build you up right from the start by increasing your appetite, toning up the nervous system, enriching the blood and increasing your vital force. For sale by your druggist.

MORE JAP GUARDS MAY BE PLACED

Tokio, May 31.—Great interest is being shown here in the negotiations between Japan and Peking in regard to the revolutionary disturbances in Shantung Province. The cabinet considered the situation at a lengthy session today. Government officials deny reports that it has been decided to extend the sphere in which Japanese military guards have been posted on the Chinese railroad to other points in Shantung, where Japanese citizens are believed to be in danger. There is a strong opinion, however, that such a step is possible, unless Peking arranges for protection of Japanese in a manner satisfactory to the imperial government.

ONE-FOURTH RESPONSIBILITY

Theodore Roosevelt, in his "Preparedness" article, in Monday's Times, made the statement that America was a whole generation behind in that military and naval strength that comported with her importance and the peace that was to be maintained by being ready and able to fight.

That looks much like placing the grave, and as he would say of another, the criminal responsibility for this condition upon himself to the extent of at least one full quarter, and we could, as well say, over one-third on himself. For more than seven and a half years of that time, he was in more absolute control of the whole government than any man that ever was called to the presidential chair. So incontestable was his power that he named his successor against the will of the party and even of the successor himself, whose wish was to go on the supreme bench, and who took the succession out of a mistaken sense of loyalty and to disastrous result to himself and his party. As Governor Cox would say, far from sensing the dreadful dilemma which he now sees the land in, he made no provision against the coming of the evil day and actually permitted the lessening of a policy, fully entered upon, that if preserved in would have by this time given us a navy, superior to that of any other power, except possibly England.

The part of the statesman is to prepare for the eventualities of the future, the profession of the politician is to quarrel with the past and shift responsibility for blunders from himself to others.

SMILE FROM THE PULPIT

(Philadelphia Public Ledger.)

Delegates to the general assembly of the Presbyterian church are advised by one of the speakers to smile, and keep on smiling, while they preach. Certainly what the world today requires is, more than ever, the gospel of optimism, of radiant and cheery faith, hope and charity.

The down-hearted we have with us always. A wise man has said that every man has a book in him; assuredly every man has a hard luck story concealed somewhere upon his person, if you give him the chance to tell it. We grow tired, all of us, of hearing that the world is about to come to an end or that the country is going to the dogs.

It requires no great acumen to discover that human nature is rotten to the core; but what we want to hear is a sunny philosophy of a man who discovers, as he keeps on growing younger, that the best is yet to be.

People go to church on Sunday morning, when they do go, not to be infinitely depressed and disheartened by being told that the times are evil in this "vale of tears", and that for any hopeful prospect a man might as well gaze into the depths of his own hat. No; they want to hear a message whereby they may take new courage to go forward and discover that "God never closes a door without opening a window."

Here is one fact that should not escape the attention of voters. The time for filing nomination petitions expires at midnight on Thursday, June 8th. Those who desire to be candidates at the primaries must have their petitions or else they cannot get on the party tickets. Party committees are also to be selected this year and one or more from each precinct must be certified in so that they can be voted upon at the August primary. Of course there is no limit to the number of candidates. Any man who can get five others to certify he is a Democrat or Republican, can become a candidate for committeeman.

Two accidents happened Sunday by reason of the man sitting on the front seat beside the drivers of automobiles becoming panic stricken and grasping the wheel when the machines got in tight places. Thus has the automobile usurped another honored custom of the horse-driven vehicle.

One of the biggest, and more than that, one of the best big men in the country, was lost to it, Monday, when death claimed James J. Hill. Because of the marvelous development of the territory to which his great railway system, the Northern Pacific, gave service, and to which he threw all his vast energies and resources, he was called the empire builder. And above all he was ever a plain, patriotic American citizen.

Some things would be mighty funny if they were not so utterly ridiculous. For instance "The Business Men's Protective League, for which we believe one T. Coleman DuPont, the Powder King, who thinks he is running for president, is the angel, offers this in behalf of its candidate: The country is protesting against the efforts of this administration to create a false issue by claiming credit for keeping us out of the European war. It is hoped that public attention will be diverted from closed factories, bread lines, bankrupt railroads and crimes of unemployment."

Anent the report that there will be 1,300 bands at the Chicago convention, the New Hampshire Portsmouth Times makes the shrewd guess that there will be some counting of hat bands to make up the full quota.

President Wilson puts the matter of efficiency in office pertinently when he asks the question: Do you grow in office, or just swell? And he points the way by growing bigger ever and never swelling.

SEEMS LIKE HER STAY GETS SHORTER EACH YEAR

WILL NOT HOLD WATER

In a contemporary we read lately the statement that such was the lack of facilities in this country of turning out armament, that, running at top speed American plants were able to turn out only three thousand rifles a week and the best they could do on frantic orders from the Allies was to supply them with less than one hundred and fifty thousand in a year. Pride in American ability and knowledge of the extent of its achievements, even when not driven by abnormal pressure and enormous profits, makes such a statement incredible. And even if we lacked that we find the statement contradicted by another, which we read in the same statement, that American manufacturers have been and are yet attempting to supply the Mexicans with hundreds of thousands of guns.

Fashion is about to enter the decree that women shall wear pockets. With the present dimensions of the skirt they can not be made deep or wide enough to hold much, but then the decree is approvable all the same.

As a war measure Germany has appointed a diet dictator. This country though at peace and hoping to remain so forever, might, nevertheless, to its profit, have one also. We eat too much and too indiscriminately.

A Charleston paper, organ of the Hatfield crowd, threw a brick at the coal barons and by the howls set up by the Bluefield Telegraph it is not hard to tell who was hit.

Considerable home building is going on in the Peerless and the houses, as a rule, are larger and better, which is all right in both respects.

Candidates have begun to file their certificates right lively, with the last day therefore in sight. Useless alarm that there was so little patriotism that the offices would go begging.

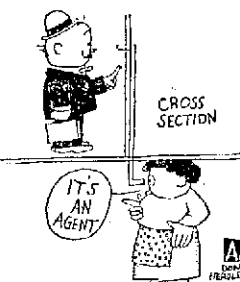

Notwithstanding the lowering skies all Portsmouth turned out for Decoration Day. This was well. The living who fought should be honored and it is wholesome to remember our dead.

Yes, the rain Decoration Day was annoying, but then there is the bright side to it that it helped vegetation mightily.

The fellows who want to make it hard for our good young governor have put another candidate in the field against him. Maybe we know little about politics but to our way of thinking that makes it all the easier for him.

Everyday Wisdom

By DON HEROLD

The door-bell-periscope is a recent invention. When the door-bell rings, the housewife can go to the basement and look into a little tube and decide whether or not she is at home.

SLEEPING CAR BLANKETS
Although it is a little late in the season to raise the question, did you ever ring for an extra blanket in a Pullman?
The porter comes and you tell him you want an extra blanket. He leaves. He goes up to ask the engineer about it. The engineer says he thinks he should write home to his wife before he gives his word, but that he guesses it will be all right if the porter will go back to the back end of the train and talk it over with the conductor. The conductor says they had better go back up to the front end of the train and talk it over together with the engineer. By that time it is Pittsburgh and a new engineer takes charge of the train. "It—, not," he says, "I took dinner last night with Mr. Pullman and he said not to give out any extra blankets."
By this time it is morning, but you don't care—for you are frozen to death anyway.

Life is strewn with banana peelings.

Chippy Chipmunk Discovers A Robbery

"CHEEP! CHEEP! CHEEP, cheep, cheep! Has anybody seen my nuts?" said a distressed little voice.

No answer.

"Cheep, cheep, cheep! Has anybody seen my nuts? My nice, sweet, juicy nuts that I had so carefully stored away?" repeated the same voice.

"Oh, dear, now," cried Chippy Chipmunk, "where can everybody be? Surely somebody will come around here—somebody that knows what has happened to my nuts!"

But though he called and called and looked and looked, not a creature did he see.

"Very well, then," he finally said, "if nobody is around here, I shall find somebody. And I shall find those nuts. Nobody shall steal my nice good nuts so there!"

And Chippy Chipmunk started on a hunt for information.

First, he climbed up a tall tree near at hand and found wise Mr. Owl taking his early morning's sleep.

"Please wake up, Mr. Owl," said Chippy eagerly, and in such distress that Mr. Owl immediately did as he was told. "I want you to tell me where my nuts are."

"Your nuts?" asked Mr. Owl. "What do I know about your nuts? Your nuts are most likely just where you put them—just there. Why bother me?"

"Of course I'm sorry to bother you, Mr. Owl," said Chippy, "but my nuts are not where I put them—that's just the trouble. I put them in the old tree stump yonder. They were there last evening just as safe as could be, for I looked at them just before I went to bed. But this morning there is not a nut there—not a nut! Not a nut." And Chippy shook his head sadly.

"Well, well, well," said Mr. Owl, "this is interesting, very interesting. I don't usually like to be bothered in the morning; but a mystery is worth looking into, even in the daytime—the stupid daytime. Now let's see what we'll do first." And he scratched his head and shook out his feathers and blinked his left eye three times.

Chippy watched him eagerly. He had great faith in Mr. Owl's wisdom and he felt as though the nuts were as good as found if he only started looking.

"But this morning there is not a nut there—not a nut! Not a nut!"

Mr. Owl, to hunting them—just that much faith had he in Mr. Owl! "So the nuts were there last night," repeated Mr. Owl thoughtfully, "and they are not there this morning—somebody must have taken them. Yes, I'm sure somebody must have taken them."

"Of course they did," said Chippy, "of course they did. I told you that myself. But who? That's what I want to know—WHO?"

Now Mr. Owl didn't like to be talked to while he was thinking; it made him very cross. So he said to Chippy, "You go and find the tree toad and ask him who took the nuts. Ask him."

So Chippy, glad to find something to do, ran off to find the tree toad and Mr. Owl was left in peace to figure out the mystery.

New York, May 31—There is an orthological scandal on Park Row. Looking into City Hall from his eyrie in the "Sun" building, the orthological editor discovered two scariet tangers, wayfarers in their spring migration from Dixie.

They brought the breath of country fields into the dusty air or town and the editor wrote a few lines of welcome. He discovered that Mrs. S. Tanager "permitted a glimpse of her wardrobe, particularly a scariet gown, trimmed in black."

If she came that way she came in disguise for the bird sharks declare the tanager is "light olive green above, yellow green below wings and tail under brown mingled with dull olive green."

So it is possible that there were two Mr. Tanagers who came to town without their wives as men sometimes do. Or it may be that he came with some other's wife. Who can tell?

The arrival of 20,000 women delegates to the Biennial Convention illustrates just how large New York is. Conventions are seldom noticed here unless they parade. Thus it is that the large number of women are meeting here and no one is noticing it—except the hotel men.

All the big hotels are packed with the women visitors. The main headquarters are at the Astor. Mr. Townsend, of the Majestic, declares that the visiting club women have convinced him that the clinging, timid woman is a creature of yesterday.

"I remember," he says, "not long ago that the average woman was really afraid to go to a hotel alone. Now the average woman is so self-reliant that she can and does go anywhere and at any time."

The best joke of the week was culled from the examination of prospective jurors at the trial of Dr. Arthur Waite. An insurance man was being questioned and was asked if he was opposed to capital punishment. He stated loudly and clearly: "Not in cases like this."

A returning Broadwayite from Grand Rapids brings this yarn as told by William J. Eiten, well known to the Rialto. A traveling man, on his return from abroad, brought the answer to the much mooted question of who started the row over there.

While in Potsdam the drummer overheard the Kaiser talking to his youngest son. The Prince was trying to find out who started the fuss. He inquired if it was Germany, Austria, Serbia, France, Russia, Turkey or Bulgaria. To all questions the Kaiser answered, "No my son."

"Well who did then?" "Some time ago," said the Kaiser, "I entertained a distinguished visitor from the United States. I showed him our barracks, our munition factories, our supplies and our soldiers. After he had seen them all, he said to me: 'Your majesty, you can whip the world.'"

The announcement that John Drew had changed managers was quite a thrill. In all his career Drew has had only three managers. His signing with John D. Williams, formerly press agent for Charles Frohman, has given Williams a conspicuous place in the theatrical world. He is a brother of Hattie Williams, the actress, and in the past few years has made rapid strides in the managerial fields. He was picked up by Frohman while he was studying at Harvard and was one of his closest friends. In fact Frohman was rarely seen in public without Williams. Williams is the producer of "Justice" and also manages Mrs. Fiske.

My Captain

I'm going to take my captain's word
And with my captain stand—
A green leaf for my sunny spear,
A violet in my hand—
My captain of the fields of life,
Whose rosy cheeks are sweet—
Oh, the captain of the ruddy face
And of the chubby feet!

I'm going to mark my captain's way
And with my captain go—
Commander of the golden day
That buds of boyhood know—
And captain of the sunny smile
And of the song that sings
Of April down the windy mile
And the path of deathless springs!

I'm going to bear my captain's sword,
And with my captain fight—
They sent him to me from the Lord
That is the Lord of Light—
My captain of the twinkling eyes
And of the freckled nose,
Who takes me back to childhood skies
With every step he goes!

And Still Some Men Stay Single

To the Editor: I am known as a widow twice of Virginia, have four children, two small and two of school age, am looking for a husband. I cannot live on the place and take care of things alone. Would like to hear from men who are not over 40 years of age, single men that have no children, that have farmed and would be willing to live on a farm and take interest in the place and help as a life companion. Will and see me before cropping time. One with horses preferred, as I have none. Have all except horses and a true husband—Downey, Idaho, Idahoan.

NEW SUPER-ZEPPELIN IS COMPLETED

Zurich, Switzerland, May 31.—(Via Paris) — Reports have reached Zurich from Romanshorn, a Swiss town on Lake Constance, that a new super-Zeppelin 750 feet long has been seen when making trial flights over the lake. The total capacity of the airship is 51,000 cubic metres or about double that of the Zeppelin of the earlier type. The new craft is fitted with seven motors, four armored gondolas, machine guns, small cannon and apparatus for dropping bombs and discharging aerial torpedoes. It weighs forty tons, is able to rise 15,000 feet and has a long range of action.

Washington, D. C., May 31.—Lumber production of the United States in 1915 was five percent less than that of 1914, according to an estimate made public today by the United States Forest survey. It was estimated that the total cut was 2,625,000 board feet.

A. P. SANDLES ENTERS THE DEMOCRATIC GUBERNATORIAL RACE

Columbus, O., May 30. Alfred P. Sandles, former president of the State Agricultural Commission, now is an avowed and committed candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor. The long-expected declaration of candidacy was made yesterday, and the formal certificate will be filed with the secretary of state at once.

Mr. Sandles' announcement of his candidacy to the Democrats of Ohio follows:

"James M. Cox has made, and would again make, a better governor than Frank B. Willis."

"A review of election figures and facts is not a personal attack upon any citizen."

"In 1914, the Democrats of Ohio made an heroic effort to elect Mr. Cox. They failed. Rural district Democrats were dissatisfied. The cities, with Mr. Baker and Mr. Finley as their spokesmen, should not seek to dictate candidates in 1916."

votes, measured by the Willis-Garfield strength. He carried 11 counties and lost 74. Only 9 Democratic congressmen landed. Two years previous 12 landed.

"Ohio has been carried by Democrats by 100,000, Governor Harrison, for re-election, carried 700 Democrats into county offices."

"Democrats do not approve of a state ticket. They prefer to have the candidates named at the August primary."

"A nomination forced by ex-appointees and beneficiaries will not arouse enthusiasm."

"Two years ago Mr. Cox was entitled to the nomination without opposition. The field is now an open one."

"Mr. Durbin and Mr. Finley should not use their official position as chairmen to shut any Democrat out of the primary. They should not attempt to manipulate the state convention in the interest of any man or set of men."

"If Mr. Cox is strong with the rank and file my candidacy will not harm him."

STRAP INSTEAD OF JAIL FOR BOYS WHO ROBBED OFFICE

WILLIAM J. MANN, GIRL.

New York, May 31.—The good old-fashioned strap properly applied probably will be the only punishment meted out to William J. Mann and William J. Bain, the six-year-old office boys in the banking offices of J. P. Morgan and Company, who ran away with $105,000 belonging to the firm. The boys were captured in Philadelphia. Ted Daly, another lad, who accompanied them to Philadelphia, escaped.

CONFERENCES MAY SETTLE THE DEMANDS OF RAILROAD MEN FOR WORK CONDITIONS

BRITISH CASUALTIES REPORTED HEAVY

London, May 31.—British casualties in May were much heavier than in either of the two preceding months. The total from all fields of operations as computed from published lists is 1,767 officers and 28,470 men. The total in March, including officers and men, was 20,424 and in April 20,511.

New York, May 31.—Representatives of the 325 railroad systems of the United States and of the conductors, trainmen and engineers will begin here tomorrow a series of conferences to settle, if possible, questions of working hours and wages. Eighteen general managers compose the committee acting for the railroads, and they will meet four representatives from each of the employees' organizations—the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and Firemen, the Brotherhood of Trainmen and the Order of Railroad Conductors.

THE AUSTRIANS FORCE ITALIANS ACROSS RIVER; HOLD BANK

Berlin, May 31.—(Wireless to Sayville) — Austro-Hungarian troops operating to the west of Arsiero in the Trentino district have forced a passage across the Posina river and have taken the heights on the southern bank, says a statement issued at the Austro-Hungarian army headquarters under date of May 30. The capture of the fortified Italian works of Pontac Ordin also was announced.

INCREASE IN SUBS IS PASSED BY HOUSE ROOSEVELT IN WEST

Washington, D. C., May 31.—Advocates of two dreadnaughts this year were marshalling their forces for another fight in the house Friday when the final vote is taken on the naval appropriation bill. They were not discouraged by action of the house sitting as a committee of the whole yesterday, in defeating an amendment to add the two dreadnaughts to the building program. The vote was 130 to 114.

More than a thousand delegates have been sent here by the employees and between conferences with the railroad managers the representatives of the four brotherhoods will consult their fellow delegates. It is estimated that the conferences will cost the brotherhoods $50,000 a week.

It was said today that majority of the employees' representatives favor a strike only as a last resort. The workers, however, wish to settle the matter themselves, and are opposed to turning the questions over to the Interstate Commerce Commission, a procedure which has been suggested by some of the railroad officials on the ground that since the railroads would have to earn more money to pay the wage increases demanded, the question of rates is involved.

The demands of the workers are for the eight hour day for all time and a half pay for overtime, preparatory time and overtime by minutes. The engineers for the most part are now on eight hour time, and the eight hour demand concerns the trainmen more than anything else.

Time and a half for overtime is insisted upon for all workers. The railroad managers estimate that to grant the demands of the men would cost them from $100,000,000 to $150,000,000 a year.

RESTA EASILY WON AUTO CLASSIC AT INDIANAPOLIS; AVERAGE 82.26 MILES

Indianapolis, May 31.—Dario Resta easily won the sixth annual speedstakes on the Indianapolis Motor Speedway yesterday, completing the 300 miles in three hours, thirty-six minutes and 10.52 seconds. He finished two minutes ahead of William D'Alene, who was second, in 3:38:41 and three minutes ahead of Ralph Mulford, who was third in 3:40:45.5. Resta's average speed was 82.26 miles an hour. Ralph De Palma completed 300 miles of last year's grand at an average speed of 90.21 miles an hour.

Both men were injured, one seriously, when two of the racing cars overturned. Jacy Lecain, who was relieved for Jules Desvignes in a serious condition as a result of overturning on the north turn. Lecain was caught under the machine. Lecain's skull is fractured in two places and the abdominal wall torn open and he probably will die. He was a team mate of Carl Gundersen who was killed in the New York races recently. The mechanician was slightly hurt. Tom Rooney's car blew a tire and smashed into the wall at the top of the south turn. The mechanician, Jim McAlister, was thrown over the wall and was bruised and cut. Rooney was caught in the wreckage which slid down the track. He suffered a broken leg and dislocated shoulder. After the one hundred and seventy-third mile, Resta had little competition for first place and the pace slowed up. Eddie Rickenbacker and John Aitken fought Resta for the lead as long as they were in the race, but engine trouble put both out. Rickenbacker in the tenth lap and Aitken in the 69th. Rickenbacker later took the wheel of Pete Henderson's car and drove it over the lap in sixth place. The first ten drivers, who share the prize money, finished in the following order: Resta, D'Alene, Mulford, Josef Christians, Barney Oldfield, Eddie Rickenbacker, Gil Anderson (driving Howard Wilcox's car), C. F. Hahne, Arthur Johnson and Tom Haley.

Resta won the $12,000 first prize and the usual trophies; D'Alene's reward was $6,000 and Mulford's $3,000. The prizes then range down to $800 for tenth place.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY FOR LATIN AMERICA
